

Echo Park Gathering of Elders and Caregivers

A community based volunteer organization serving Echo Park Seniors & Caregivers

ADVOCACY* EDUCATION* INFORMATION* OUTREACH to USHER in CHANGE

FREE   PROGRAMS/EVENTS FOR OCTOBER 2014. * FREE

JOIN US TO LEARN ALL ABOUT THE PLANTS IN & AROUND ECHO LAKE.

The guided tour by Michael O'Brien will be paced so that it can be enjoyed by all.
Walks 3 to 5 around the Lake offered by area plant expert Michael O'Brien.

- Monday, October 6 at 9:00 AM. Echo Park & Echo Lake.
Meet by the Boat House (on Echo Park Avenue between Park Avenue & Laguna)
- Friday, October 24 at 9:00 AM . More about the plants around that surround Echo Lake.
Meet at the clump of bamboos(by pump station) close to Bellevue & Echo Park Avenue.
- Monday, October 27 at 9:00 AM. Even more about Echo Park and its plants.
Meet at south end of Echo Park by Glendale Ave. & Bellevue.

⊗ PLANTS in ELYSIAN PARK. A look at plants along a popular trail in this 544 acre public park.

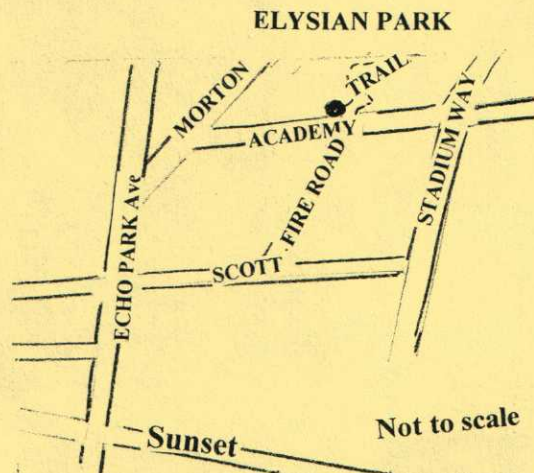

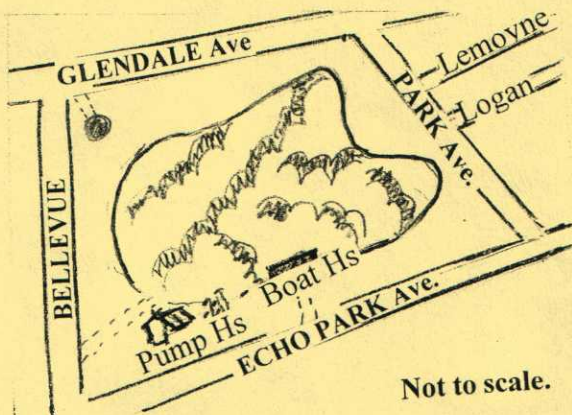

Friday, October ~~24~~²⁷ at 9:00 AM. Meet at the Fire Road & Trail.

On Academy between Morton & Stadium Way/Avenue of Palms
Exercise caution as there are no crosswalks in this section of road.
or sidewalks

Michael O'Brien is our guide whose knowledge of plant life is legendary. He is a licensed Landscape Architect in California and Arizona and a Certified arborist. He is recently retired as Project Planner in the Office of Zoning Administration, City of Los Angeles.

Michael O'Brien is an instructor in the UCLA Extension Certificate in Landscape Architecture and Advanced Environmental Analysis and Planning which won the Award of Honor in Community Service " Gorman Wildflower Preserve," from the American Society of Landscape Architects.

MAPS OF AREA TO MEET FOR WALKS.

PLEASE SHARE THIS INFORMATION WITH OTHERS. ALL ARE WELCOME.

Please dress for weather. wear sensible shoes. Bring hat, sunscreen & water.